HERE WE GROW AGAIN

Expansion Announcement

Mississauga, ON January 15, 2020 – Mits Airconditioning Inc. is pleased to announce that the HVAC distributorship operation is expanding to South and South Western Ontario to better serve Contractors, Engineers, Architects, and HVAC Designers in the region. A new branch opening in London, Ontario will complement the Mits Airconditioning Inc. Headquarters in Mississauga, Ontario and the Barrie, Ontario branch. Later in the year, an additional branch will be opening in Windsor, Ontario.

Mits Airconditioning Inc. is an exclusive distributor for Mitsubishi Electric and in taking over the South and South Western Ontario distributorship will provide Mitsubishi Electric equipment, parts, and technical support in the region effective April 1, 2020.

All other HVAC products currently distributed by Mits Airconditioning Inc., outlined below, will also be available for the new South and South Western Ontario region. The new London branch has a warehouse and is located at:
